87 High Street

Wibsey, Bradford

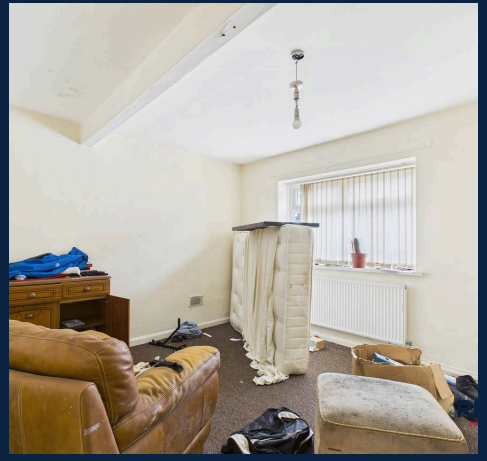

This two bedroom terraced house represents an excellent opportunity for builders, speculators and investors seeking a project in the heart of Wibsey village.
The property is offered vacant and requires a full programme of renovation, making it an ideal prospect for those looking to add value or create a bespoke home. The accommodation includes a lounge, separate sitting room and a kitchenette, providing a flexible layout for future modernisation. There is also a small basement cellar. Upstairs, there are two generously sized double bedrooms and a bathroom with w.c, offering ample space for comfortable living once refurbished. The property benefits from its central location within Wibsey village, placing a range of local amenities, shops, and transport links within easy reach. With its traditional layout and scope for improvement, this property represents a rare chance to acquire a blank canvas in a sought-after area. Early viewing is recommended to fully appreciate the potential on offer and to envisage the possibilities for transformation.
